

More media consolidation is not in the public interest which is best served by having access to divergent viewpoints and all possible information so citizens can make intelligent choices as they choose and monitor their public servants.

Please do not lift the media cross ownership ban.